BC Sports Hall of Fame fieldtrips are...

Designed to help students learn about BC's outstanding sport history and heroes. The fieldtrips use examples set by BC Sports Hall of Famers to illustrate the importance of Goal Setting, Dedication and Determination. Fieldtrips are linked to curriculum goals in personal planning, social studies and physical education. We look forward to welcoming your class for one of our exciting fieldtrips.

What we offer...

Olympic Inspirations

ARTIFACT HIGHLIGHTS:

- First Olympic medal won by a BC athlete
- 1976 and 1988 Olympic torches
- Ross Rebagliati's Olympic jacket

Get ready for the 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Games by celebrating British Columbia's exceptional Olympic history during the Olympic Inspirations school tour. Using the artefact collection and exhibits of over 50 BC Olympic medalists; students will complete an Olympic Inspirations' Scavenger Hunt, an Olympian biography and complete a mini-Olympic challenge in the Participation Gallery.

Terry Fox Tour

ARTIFACT HIGHLIGHTS:

- Terry's running shoes
- T-shirt and shorts from the Marathon of Hope
- Terry's Order of Canada medal
- First page of Terry's personal journal
- Variety of gifts given to Terry

Inspire your students with the Terry Fox Tour. The fieldtrip highlights the story of the Marathon of Hope and has students learning from the only permanent gallery dedicated to this great Canadian Hero. After their visit, your students will be asked to think about Terry's unique story and how they can use the lessons learned to achieve their personal goals. In small groups your class investigate various aspects of the Marathon of Hope and present to each other what they learned. As a class students trace Terry's monumental journey across Canada.

who inspires you?
HERO@YOU tour

ARTIFACT HIGHLIGHTS:

- Rick Hansen's Man in Motion wheelchair
- Lori Fung's Olympic uniform & ribbon
- Karen Magnussen's figure skating dress

The Hero In You Tour is the ideal way to introduce the BC Sports Hall of Fame to your students. The fieldtrip includes a tour of 14 History Galleries focusing on the stories & lessons of our Hero In You® athletes (Rick Hansen, Lori Fung, Debbie Brill to name a few). Students will learn about the courage to come back (Karen Magnussen), the importance of social responsibility (Daniel Igali) and the power of play (Silken Laumann).

BIG moments IN BC SPORT

ARTIFACT HIGHLIGHTS:

- Lester Patrick's hockey skates
- Percy William's track shoes
- Miracle Mile stop watch
- First Vancouver Canucks' NHL jersey

This fieldtrip celebrates the big moments (so far) in BC Sport History. Students will learn about BC's first and second Stanley Cup victories, Percy William's double gold Olympic victory and how this young 18 year old helped to put Vancouver on the international map, why the '54 Miracle Mile is still considered one of the best sporting events ever, the BC Lions' first Grey Cup win and more. After the tour the students' Big Moments in BC Sport knowledge will be tested by playing a giant trivia game.
